

Guadalajara Plaza Hoteles & Suites is a Hotel Group that is fully committed to its Guests, Associates and Suppliers. For this reason, we have set strict Privacy Policies that guarantee that any personal information that You provide us with will always be properly safeguarded. We know that your information belongs to You exclusively and will only be used for authorized purposes.

In our Privacy Policy, You will be able to find the purposes for which your personal data is required, as well as find our Contact information (e-mail, address, phone number) in case You ever need to exercise any of your ARCO Rights (Access, Rectification, Cancellation and Objection) at any moment that you consider convenient.

We ask that in the case that You decide to exercise any of your ARCO Rights, please use the Form that is made available to You through this page, as well as attach to the Form the ideal document that credits You as holder of your personal data, so that Guadalajara Plaza Hoteles & Suites can provide You with the best possible service and can solve all of your concerns.
